Detmold, January 15, 2019

Dear members and friends of the society, ladies and gentlemen

we wish everybody far and near a Happy New Year.

With this letter and its annexes we would like to invite you to events around the Holocaust remembrance day in January in several municipalities in Lippe. In greater detail we point out events which are in our responsibility and which have been organized by our catholic chairwoman Barbara Klaus, for which we are very thankful to her. In different ways we will present the Jewish paintress Charlotte Salomon and her in many ways remarkable fate. Then Professor Matitjahu Kellig, the chairman of the Jewish community Detmold . Herford, will talk about the topic Jewry and antisemitism in our society . how he experiences this at present. With both topics we respond to wishes which you expressed at last year's general meeting. We would like to cordially invite you to present your wishes also this year on Sunday, March 31, at 3 p.m. in Haus Münsterberg. Mrs Mitschke-Buchholz will give a short lecture on the children's transport with which Fred Herzberg, the father of our Jewish chair - Mrs Joanne Herzberg, could leave Germany on February 6, 1939. You will get a special invitation for this general meeting.

In March we will finally be able to present the documentation about the tombstones of the later Jewish cemetery in Detmold. Mrs Hüttenmeister from the Salomon - Steinheim . Institute will give explanations on this on March, 12. We are very pleased that this big project, initiated by Jörg Ehrlicher, Rüdiger Schleysing and Ulrich Heinemann, has now been completed and is digitally accessible on our homepage before weather and time will completely have faded remembrance.

Jewry in our society – how is it perceived ?

Lecture and discussion in the series RReligionen im GesprächI (Religions in talk)

Lecturer: Matitjahu Kellig, Chairman of the Jewish Society Herford-Detmold

After the Holocaust dozens of memorials for admonition and memory were erected in Germany. Many are proud of this culture of remembering. On the other hand the burning Israeli flag in front of the Brandenburger Tor in 2018 has brought up questions: How are Jews seen in Germany ? Is there a new kind of antisemitism?

In his lecture Mr Matitjahu Kellig will deal with these questions. Helpful are his experiences as a worldwide requested concert pianist and longstanding Professor at the Music Academy in Detmold.

Series of events in cooperation with Gesellschaft für christlich-jüdische Zusammenarbeit in Lippe e.V., Evang. Studierendengemeinde Detmold/Lemgo and Kathol. Bildungswerk Lippe e.V.

Moderator: Barbara Klaus

Katholisches Gemeindehaus, Schubertplatz 10, 32756 Detmold

Tuesday, March 12, 7.30 p.m.

Presentation of the documentation of tombstones on the later Jewish cemetery Detmold

Natanja Hüttenmeister, Salomon-Steinheim-Institute

The documentation is now available online via database 'epidat' (<http://www.steinheim-institut.de:50580/cgi-bin/epidat?id=dtm>). The cemetery, where also tombstones of the former cemetery can be found, reflects nearly 300 years of Jewish history in Detmold. In this lecture the results of the documentation will be presented and put into the context of the general Jewish cemetery culture as, for example, the development of grave designing, the meaning of symbolism and the structure and content of Hebrew inscriptions.

Haus Münsterberg, Hornsche Str. 38, Detmold

Sunday, March 17, 2019, 5 p.m.

Kunst unterm Kirchturmí (Art under the church tower)

Hebrew songs and Klezmer music with the choir TonArt of the parish Wöbbel conducted by Helena Mansfeld and with Beate Ramisch (pianist and singer) and Mike Pigorsch (guitar).

Organizers: parish Wöbbel and GfCJZ.

Church in Wöbbel, Am Kirchborn 2, 32816 Schieder-Schwalenberg

Regards from myself . also on behalf of the entire managing-committee
